

Theology on the Web.org.uk

Making Biblical Scholarship Accessible

This document was supplied for free educational purposes. Unless it is in the public domain, it may not be sold for profit or hosted on a webserver without the permission of the copyright holder.

If you find it of help to you and would like to support the ministry of Theology on the Web, please consider using the links below:

Buy me a coffee

<https://www.buymeacoffee.com/theology>

PATREON

<https://patreon.com/theologyontheweb>

PayPal

<https://paypal.me/robbradshaw>

---

A table of contents for The Churchman can be found here:

https://biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles\_churchman\_os.php

Christianity before Alexandra College in 1890. His literary tastes did not forsake him after he went to Killaloe. One of the last things from his pen was a paper on the ancient cathedral of St. Flannan (Killaloe). He also wrote bright and picturesque articles in some of the English magazines on his See town, and the well-known seaside resort of Kilkee. Perhaps the book by which he made his mark, and was the best known of all his writings, is his life of Achilles Daunt, which appeared under the title, "Spirit in the Service," and which has gone through many editions. He also published two volumes of admirable pastoral addresses, "The Joy of the Ministry," and "Our Sacred Commission." To the end the Bishop was a worker and thinker.

J. A. C.

---

Obituary.

---

THE REV. CARR J. GLYN, aged ninety-eight years. A graduate of Christ Church, Oxford, in 1821, he became Rector of Stanbridge, Dorset, in 1830, and Rector of Witchampton, where he has remained all his life. He has done much useful work. St. John's Church, Wimborne, was built at his expense, and two local Church schools were supported by him. He was uncle to the Bishop-designate of Peterborough.

The President of Queen's College, Cambridge, Canon William Mogan Campion, aged seventy-six years. Fourth Wrangler in 1849, he became Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Queen's in 1852. His mental breadth is shown by his election as examiner not only in the Mathematical Tripos, but also in Theology and Natural Science. As Rector of St. Botolph's, Cambridge, he was ever among the foremost in useful labours in the town, and as Rural Dean he was highly esteemed by the clergy. He became President, in 1892, in succession to Dr. Phillips. He is followed by Dr. Ryle, Hulsean Professor of Divinity, son of the Bishop of Liverpool, who will retain his Professorial Chair, as, through agricultural depression, the revenues at his disposal as President have greatly diminished.

The Right Rev. Frederick Richards Wynne, D.D., Bishop of Killaloe, died suddenly in Waterloo Road, Dublin, from the shock caused by the mortal illness of his wife, and the excitement resulting from his running for a medical man. He gained honours at Trinity College, Dublin, and was ordained in 1850. For ten years he was perpetual curate of St. Mary's, Kilkenny, and for nearly twenty years incumbent of St. Matthias', Dublin. He was Canon both of St. Patrick's Cathedral and Christ Church, Dublin, and from 1888-93 Professor of Pastoral Theology in the University of Dublin. He became Bishop of Killaloe in 1893, being appointed by the Bench of Bishops. He was the author of several works.