 Obituary.

WE regret to have to record the death, at the age of fifty-six, of the Right Rev. Daniel Lewis Lloyd, seventy-first Bishop of Bangor, who retired from office only last year. He was a brilliant educationalist, a finished Welsh scholar, and a man of power and energy. Unfortunately he suffered from ill-health for some years past, and this was the cause of his resigning the Bishopric of Bangor, which he had only held for eight years. He was one of the most remarkable Welshmen of his generation.

The diocese of Lincoln has lost one of its best-known clergy in the person of the Rev. Canon Arthur Robert Pennington, who died on the 19th inst., at Utterby, near Louth, aged eighty-five. He graduated from Trinity College, Cambridge, as eighth Junior Opt. in 1838. After serving as curate of St. Peter's, Colchester; St. James's, Walthamstow; and St. Dunstan's-in-the-West, he was presented forty-five years ago to the vicarage of Utterby, which he occupied till his death. In 1882 Bishop Christopher Wordsworth made him a prebendary of Lincoln Cathedral. He was a considerable writer on subjects connected with the Reformation. His "Life of Erasmus" appeared in 1875, and he published a biography of John Wycliffe in connection with the Wycliffe commemoration of 1884. His latest work, "The Papal Conclaves," was issued when he was eighty-three years of age.

Among recent deaths we have to record those of Professor A. B. Bruce, of the Free Church College, Glasgow, well known for his apologetic and other works on the Christian religion, and of Dr. David Johnson, ex-Professor of Biblical Criticism, Aberdeen. Dr. Bruce was in his sixty-ninth year, and was one of the chief representatives in Scotland of the Vermittelungs Theologie. He was Gifford Lecturer at Glasgow in 1897-98, when he delivered his discourses on "The Providential Order of the World."
